This program provides appropriate treatment for offenders with drug-related offenses and substance abuse histories who are mandated to participate in treatment. The Department has established a continuum of care with a range of evidence-based services that include: diagnostic center screening; clinical assessment and classification; institutional substance abuse treatment services; and pre-release planning at ten correctional centers. Three other institutions have substance abuse services for general population offenders including intake, assessment, and substance abuse and relapse education services. Additionally, the Department of Corrections provides contract oversight and quality assurance monitoring for institutional programs, as well as program research and evaluation. The special needs program at Northeast Correctional Center is funded by the Residential Substance Abuse Treatment for Prisoners (RSAT) grant from the U.S. Department of Justice. Finally, Substance Abuse Services works in a close partnership with the Department of Mental Health Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse to facilitate timely continuing care when high-risk offenders are released from prison to Probation or Parole supervision.

1. What does this program do?

The 350-bed Kansas City Community Release Center and the 550-bed St. Louis Community Release Center are two community-based facilities that assist male offenders with reintegration to the community from prison or provide stabilization while they remain assigned under community supervision. The community release centers provide the Department with critical transitional services for offenders supervised in the metropolitan St. Louis and Kansas City areas. The Parole Board stipulates offenders for assignment to the centers based on their need for more structured supervision/assistance during the release process. The centers also provide a means to assess offenders under Parole Board supervision who are at risk for revocation. Finally, the facilities may be used as a more intense supervision strategy for probationers at risk for revocation by the Courts.

The Kansas City Community Release Center transitioned to the Kansas City Reentry Center, a Division of Adult Institutions' facility, on September 1, 2015.

1. What does this program do?

This program provides a process for the Department to review and respond to complaints filed by offenders who are confined in correctional institutions. The process offers two primary benefits to the Department. First, it allows the Department to resolve offender complaints internally, resulting in a reduction in the number of lawsuits filed by offenders. Second, it provides offenders with a non-violent means of addressing their complaints. Before filing formal grievances, offenders must seek informal resolutions to their grievable issues, which may involve almost any aspect of their confinement. If offenders are not satisfied with the responses received regarding their informal resolution requests, they may file formal grievances seeking remedies to their issues. The institutional staff review and prepare formal responses to the grievances for the institutional warden's approval. If the offenders are not satisfied with the formal grievance responses, they may file grievance appeals seeking remedies to their issues. In the final step of the grievance process, the grievance appeals are sent to the staff members of the Offender Grievance Unit at Central Office. Unit staff members review and evaluate the grievance files and prepare written responses to the appeals for approval by the deputy division directors. The institutional staff deliver the grievance appeal responses to the offenders.

In addition to responding to grievance appeals, the Grievance Unit staff members are responsible for training and assisting institutional staff as they respond to grievances. The unit also serves as the liaison to the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Corrections, a committee established by executive order to provide external review of the offender grievance process.

2. What is the authorization for this program, i.e., federal or state statute, etc.? (Include the federal program number, if applicable.)

Chapter 217.370 RSMo. requires the Department to establish an offender grievance procedure. Chapter 506.384 RSMo. requires offenders to exhaust the grievance process before filing most types of lawsuits in state court. There is no federal law that requires states to have an offender grievance program; however, the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995 requires prisoners to exhaust any available grievance process before filing a lawsuit in federal court. 42 U.S.C. 1997e(a).

3. Are there federal matching requirements? If yes, please explain.

No.

4. Is this a federally mandated program? If yes, please explain.

No.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION
Per 217.255 RSMo and 217.260 RSMo, the Department of Corrections must provide monthly compensation to each offender for work or services performed and for satisfactory performance in academic or vocational education classes. The majority of the Wage and Discharge appropriation is utilized for this purpose as each offender is compensated at least $7.50 per month. This compensation assists the Department in satisfying its constitutional obligation to ensure offenders have the financial means to purchase legal materials and basic hygiene supplies.
Per 217.285 RSMo each offender paroled or discharged from the Department may, depending on need, be furnished appropriate civilian clothing and up to two hundred dollars. For many years the Department has been unable to provide any funds for the approximately 18,000 offenders released each year. This greatly impacts their ability to successfully reenter and remain in their communities, which in turn negatively impacts public safety. The funding which has been allotted for discharge expenses is currently being utilized to provide departing indigent offenders with transportation to the community to which they are being released.

1. What does this program do?

The 350-bed Kansas City Community Release Center and the 550-bed St. Louis Community Release Center are two community-based facilities that assist male offenders with reintegration to the community from prison or provide stabilization while they remain assigned under community supervision. The community release centers provide the Department with critical transitional services for offenders supervised in the metropolitan St. Louis and Kansas City areas. The Parole Board stipulates offenders for assignment to the centers based on their need for more structured supervision/assistance during the release process. The centers also provide a means to assess offenders under Parole Board supervision who are at risk for revocation. Finally, the facilities may be used as a more intense supervision strategy for probationers at risk for revocation by the Courts.

The Kansas City Community Release Center transitioned to the Kansas City Reentry Center, a Division of Adult Institutions' facility, on September 1, 2015.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION
The Eastern Reception and Diagnostic Correctional Center (ERDCC) is a maximum/medium/minimum male institution located in Bonne Terre, Missouri. ERDCC has an operating capacity of 2,721 beds. This institution houses the incoming male reception and diagnostic offenders from eastern Missouri counties, custody level medium/maximum general population offenders, protective custody offenders, a Transitional Care Unit, the Missouri Sex Offender Program for physically-disabled offenders, and a small cadre of minimum security offenders to fill work release and institutional job positions which require the offenders to work outside the perimeter fence. The offenders assigned to this institution participate in case management planning to address their criminogenic risk and need factors, thus improving their likelihood of becoming productive citizens. ERDCC offers the following programming and services which focus on addressing criminogenic factors: cognitive restructuring, faith-based, mental health, academic education, parenting, Puppies for Parole, restorative justice, substance abuse, job training and supervised work release. In addition, to aid the offenders in developing marketable skills, the Missouri Vocational Enterprises operates a chemical products factory at ERDCC.
The Eastern Region Warehouse and Cook-Chill are also located on the institutional grounds.
